CHAMPIONSHIP DEPENDS ON MADISON GAME

Madison, Wis., Nov. 12.—The football championship of the middle west probably depends on the game to be played in Madison tomorrow between Minnesota and Wisconsin. Both teams have thus far won all contests this year. Predictions largely favor Minnesota, although Wisconsin's line is slightly stronger. Minnesota, however, has more individual stars and has defeated its previous opponents by larger scores than Wisconsin.

For delicious cheese balls, buy some cottage cheese, work it smooth with butter and season well with paprika, make into small balls and serve with salad course.

SOCIETY

ELKS CARD PARTY.

With the generous spirit that pervades the atmosphere at the joyous Christmas time, comes the sacrificing acts of all who are benevolently disposed.

One of the first societies to respond to the Christmas cheer incentive, is the Martha, which will give a card party at the Elks' spacious club rooms on Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, November 17th, which the members of that society have generously offered for this charitable purpose. The Martha society attracted a large crowd at the last entertainment given at the Weber club rooms.

Admission will be charged and the proceeds made wherever useful as decided by the members of the Martha society.

The character of the games have not been decided exactly, but two beautiful prizes will be donated, which is considered very charming. The sponsor, Mrs. Ad Kuhn and Mrs. Abe Kuhn will present the society with the gentleman's prize and Mrs. John Lewis, the lady's prize.

The members of the Martha society will make elaborate arrangements, and about 250 guests are expected.

Following are the names of the members of the club who are all known to be charming entertainers: Mrs. Thomas E. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Abe Kuhn, Mrs. John S. Lewis, Mrs. A. P. Hibbs, Mrs. I. L. Reynolds, Mrs. E. P. Matson, Mrs. Ad Kuhn, Mrs. H. E. Spencer, Mrs. M. E. Eccles, Mrs. M. S. Browning, Mrs. Joseph Scowcroft, Mrs. E. A. Littlefield, Mrs. E. M. Conroy, Mrs. David Eccles, Mrs. R. T. Hume, Mrs. J. C. Armstrong, Mrs. William Eccles, Mrs. A. P. Bigelow, Mrs. Promise Des, Mrs. G. L. Becker, Mrs. T. Healy, Mrs. S. Condon, Mrs. J. H. Spargo, Mrs. F. J. Kiesel and Mrs. Ezra Rich.

LITERARY CLUB.

Mrs. John Culley entertained the Ladies' Literary club, Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 2nd. The president, Mrs. Fulton, presided. She stated that the other clubs had asked to have a committee appointed to work with them in furnishing a literary and musical program for the Industrial school.

Mrs. John Culley, Mrs. D. Watson and Mrs. Fred Clark were appointed.

Mrs. Caine was leader of the afternoon's program.

The topics for general discussion were, "Maryland," "Society in the Old Dominion" and "Charles II."

Mrs. Bowman gave an interesting and thoroughly prepared paper on "Early Colonial Homes." Furniture and fashions of the Colonials was ably presented by Mrs. Ezra Clark.

Mrs. Rich assisted the hostess in serving refreshments, and contributing to the social hour which was greatly enjoyed by all members.

The club will meet Wednesday, November 17, with Mrs. W. C. Wright.

MR. AND MRS. JAY ENTERTAINED.

Among the interesting social events laid over last week, was the enjoyment afforded to the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jay at their hospitable home.

Games and refreshments were the order of the affair, and the guests were jolly and well pleased with the evening, as they reluctantly wended the way to their various homes at a late hour.

Those invited to participate were: Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stallings, Mr. and Mrs. O. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Steinhilber, Mr. and Mrs. J. Crossley, Mr. and Mrs. F. Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Jones, Mr. and Mrs. S. Stephens, Mesdames Hughes, Stone, Robinson and Mr. J. Robinson.

DANCING JUVENILES.

To be an observer at the Royal academy on Saturday afternoon, while Mrs. Berry is training the graceful little feet of her dancing students, with the assistance of her young daughter, is to witness one of the prettiest sights that can be imagined.

While pleasing to the eye, if moderately indulged in, learning the art of the feet in conjunction with the whole body, has a decided tendency toward grace in those who educate themselves in this particular line.

In this day and age of education, the body must be educated as well as the mind.

The exquisite abandon and grace of childhood, is, one might say, the greatest innocent attractive force in the world.

KITCHEN BRIDAL SHOWER.

The shower, which deluged Miss Ellen Holberg with necessary necessities, and was an evidence of the esteem in which she is held by her friends, was a decided success to the guests present as well as to her, and it occurred on Monday evening.

Her home at 3378 Washington avenue, was joyously thronged with friends. Games and music furnished much of the pleasure and one of the dearest of suppers was served.

The guests present were Misses Minnie Brown, Mabel Charlesworth, Hazel Newey, Gladys Ensign, Dorothy Greenwell, Orlinda Woolley, Emma Unsworth, Eva Hetzler and Miss Charlesworth.

THURSDAY CEMBLIN CLUB.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. B. F. Livingston entertained the "Cemblin Club" at her beautiful home in Gramercy avenue. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in social chat, cards and music.

At 4:00 o'clock a dainty lunch was served, after which the guests departed for their homes. The Cemblin Club will meet with Mrs. L. Boyle Thursday afternoon, November 18th.

JOYCE-HIBBARD WEDDING.

The wedding ceremony of Miss Frances Joyce and Mr. Henry Charles Hibbard, will be performed at the Church of the Good Shepherd this evening.

Guests must, of necessity, present their invitations at the door, as the friends of the contracting parties are so numerous that the invitations cover the capacity of the church, therefore, no one but those presenting invitations will be admitted.

MUSICAL EVENT.

The musical event of the season is promised at the Congregational church next Friday evening, when Miss A. Rosalie Holberg and Miss Genevieve Malone will give a recital. Miss Holberg appeared last June in a recital which provoked considerable stir in the local musical world. It was apparent then that she would have to arrange another evening to please her many friends.

Miss Malone, the violinist who is to assist Miss Holberg, is well known in Ogden.

Mme. Holberg, Miss Loretto Malone and Miss Biddle are the advertised accompanists.

TOLSTOI.

The Tolstoi Circle met with Mrs. P. A. Cook, at her home on Twentieth street, Tuesday last. In spite of the inclement weather a good attendance was present.

After the business part of the meeting was disposed of, Mrs. Gosling opened the program with the poem, "Dickens in Camp," by Bret Harte, which was very well given, after which the studies of "David Copperfield" was resumed, with Mrs. Kuhn, the president, in the lead. A general debate followed on the characters assigned.

During the social hour refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Townsend.

The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Meek, 2660 Jefferson Ave., Tuesday, November 23rd.

WINTLE-DORAN.

Announcement which has occasioned much interest during the last week, was that of the marriage of Miss Grace Wintle and Dr. T. C. Doran, of Ogden, which took place Saturday, November 6, in Salt Lake City. Sunday, at high noon, Dr. and Mrs. Doran returned to Ogden, and an informal reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wintle, where the immediate relatives participated in a delightful evening.

Mrs. Doran has many relatives and friends in this city, and Dr. Doran is a young practicing physician of Ogden. His former home was in Burlington, Iowa. He is a graduate of the State University of Iowa. During the past year he has resided in this city and is one of Ogden's most popular physicians.

CHRISTMAS EFFORT.

The Salvation Army now shines in the way of practical charity, giving to the poor and needy the necessities of life. The Christmas effort is now upon us and to those who can afford it, it brings good cheer but there are families in Ogden who cannot afford to furnish themselves a Christmas dinner for themselves, and it is those whom the Salvation Army will extend help and give dinners and Christmas presents.

On account of our limited force, we will be compelled to start early. Boxes will be placed in the stores and the public is requested to contribute all that is possible to help the good work along.

PLEASANTLY SURPRISED.

Mrs. Mary Nye was very pleasantly surprised last Friday evening at the home of her son, George O. Nye, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

The evening was spent enjoyably with a musical programme, after which a dainty luncheon was served. Those who spent such a very pleasant evening were: Messrs. and Mesdames D. W. Arave, Thos. Phillips, Osborne Nye, George O. Nye, Messrs. Albert, Cherrington, George, Dehnbender, Mesdames Ellen Eastman, Thos. Bartlett, Misses Marion Nye, Leonore Eastman, Zelpha and Gwendoline Arave.

SURPRISE ON MRS. WIGGINS.

The members of the Primary association of the Third ward gave a very enjoyable surprise party on Mrs. Thos Wiggins, Tuesday evening, at her home on Grant avenue, between 22nd and 23rd streets. The amusements were music and games of various kinds, after which a dainty repast was served. Those present were: Mrs. Sarah Tracy, Mrs. James Farnsworth, Mrs. Elizabeth McFarlane, Mrs. Annie Shurtliff, Misses Farr, Pearl Tracey, Florence Lowe, Ruby Wetherpoon, Verna Van Dyke, Norine Moyer, Florence Wiggins, Lucille Williams, Messrs. Francis Wiggins and George Sample.

VENABLES-BELLIS WEDDING.

On Monday evening, November 8, at the residence of Rev. J. E. Carver, 729 Twenty-fifth street, Mr. George Venables, of Chicago, and Miss R. C. Bellis, of Kansas City, were quietly married.

The groom was formerly a court stenographer in Chicago, but, becoming afflicted with stenographer's paralysis, came west to make a new start, and, having secured a good business in Salt Lake, sent to Kansas City for his bride.

FRIDAY NIGHT BRIDGE.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kuhn entertained the Friday Night Bridge club last evening. There was a full attendance.

The decorations were in white, the centerpiece for the table was a gorgeous crowd of white chrysanthemums—and the luncheon almost surpassed former efforts by the charming hostess.

The lady's prize was won by Mrs. Abe Kuhn and the gentleman's by Dr. A. P. Hibbs.

MRS. EMPEY SERVED TEA.

Overlooked in the hurry of Saturday's society report was an affair held at the home of Mrs. Alf Empey, 417 Thirtieth street, Ogden, Friday afternoon.

Tea was dispensed and the guests entertained by games.

The invited guests were Mesdames D. W. Stone, Len Jones, Henry West, Will Powers, James Rennie, Bob Minnick, Geo. Wheelwright, Harriet Stevens and Sol Wheelwright.

TEA PARTY.

A dainty tea was given by Mrs. James Rennie, at her home on Washington avenue, Thursday afternoon. The guests present were Mesdames Henry West, Will Powers, Lon Jones,

D. W. Stone, Harriet Stevens, Sol Wheelwright, Bob Minnick, George Wheelwright, Polly Doyle, Alf Empey, and Lizzie Stone.

ASHBY-RETZLER RECEPTION.

A charming reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Steele, 3378 Washington avenue, Thursday evening in honor of the marriage of Miss Ellen Hetzler and Mr. James Ashby, the ceremony having been performed at the Salt Lake Temple, Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Steele's pretty home was decorated very artistically, pink and white being the color scheme. Pink and white chrysanthemums were used, intermingled with amaranths.

The bride's reception gown was of ponce, trimmed with blue, while she carried a magnificent bouquet of pink and white bridal roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Eva Hetzler, and Mr. William P. Stevens attended the groom.

The reception hours were from eight until eleven, and during that time over one hundred guests paid compliment to the popular couple.

Refreshments were served about 10:30, favors in the form of a morsel of wedding cake, daintily wrapped and tied with ribbon, delighted all, who probably enjoyed sweeter dreams with the souvenir tucked under the pillow. Punch was served after the refreshments.

Miss Ruth Peterson and Miss Virginia Steele served the refreshments.

A very unique way of discerning the next bride-to-be, was originated by the bride, who caused a drawing of the unmarried ladies, the successful one to receive the bridal bouquet. After much merriment and discussion, Miss Pearl Craig was pronounced the lucky one, and the limit of a year is held over her head.

The many guests departed at a late hour, leaving beautiful presents and congratulations behind them.

I. O. G. T. MASK BALL.

The mask party given Friday night by the Independent Order of Good Templars proved a very entertaining social affair.

There were about seventy-five members and their friends present. About forty young people were masked, the costumes being very good, and it was very hard for the judges to decide which were the best, but the prizes were awarded to Miss Ethel Way, who took the part of a cow girl, and to Ray Greenwell, who acted the "Shoens" to perfection. The judges were Mrs. Jenkins of Salt Lake, Mrs. Nannie Owens and Mr. James.

A short but entertaining program was rendered by Little Lewis and Hazel James, duet; Miss Grace Russell and Miss Nellie Ramey, duet; Mr. Leimann, solo; Mr. Ramey, solo, and Rev. Carver gave a short address. The gipsy tent, presided over by Miss Leola Kennedy, who made a good gipsy, was well patronized; also the candy booth and the grab bag.

At a late hour all adjourned to the dining room, where light refreshments were served by Mrs. Muller, Mrs. Hawes and Mrs. Robertson.

Several visitors were present from Salt Lake, among whom were Mrs. Edward Jenkins, Harry Woddesides and Clarence Emmert.

Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Barber will leave Tuesday on the Overland limited for Chicago, where they will remain for a few days. They will spend Thanksgiving with Dr. Barber's parents and return to Ogden December 1.

RECEPTION AT THE METHODIST CHURCH.

A reception was given to the members and adherents of the Methodist Episcopal church by Rev. and Mrs. G. W. McCreery Friday evening. A large company of people responded to the invitation and a good time was enjoyed by all.

During the evening there were these musical selections: A solo by Mrs. F. N. Hess, a selection by the Methodist male quartette, a whistling solo, by Miss Adelle Rowse, a violin solo by Miss Rosemond Laird, and a piano duet by Miss Jessie Valand and Herbert C. Layne, and several piano solos by Mr. Layne.

CHILD CULTURE CLUB.

Mrs. Gosling entertained the Child Culture club at the Episcopal guild rooms Tuesday evening, November 2, in a very charming manner.

The program was well rendered. Mrs. Smurthwaite reviewed the book concerning children by Gilman. Mrs. Hunter spoke on "The Criminal Tendencies of the Child at the Adolescent Period." Mrs. Smith read an article from Dunston Brewer on "The Child's Mind from Eighteen Months to Three Years."

At refreshing hour a delicious repast was served.

A hat that looks all right with a sack suit appears quite different with a overcoat. When you put on a new winter overcoat, on reflection in the glass, you may see that a heavier style of brim and crown will be more becoming, but of course this is only a matter of detail.
